Anchors Aweigh

Verse I

Stand, Navy, out to sea, Fight our battle cry;
We'll never change our course, So vicious foe steer shy-y-y-y.
Roll out the TNT, Anchors Aweigh. Sail on to victory
And sink their bones to Davy Jones, hooray!

Verse II

Anchors Aweigh, my boys, Anchors Aweigh.
Farewell to foreign shores, we sail at break of day-ay-ay-ay.
Through our last night on shore, drink to the foam,
Until we meet once more. Here's wishing you a happy voyage home.

Verse III

Blue of the Mighty Deep; Gold of God's great sun
Let these our colors be till all of time be done, done, done,
On Seven Seas we learn Navy's stern call:
Faith, courage, service true with honor over, honor over all.

Marines' Hymn

Verse I

From the Halls of Montezuma
To the shores of Tripoli
We fight our country's battles
In the air, on land, and sea;
First to fight for right and freedom
And to keep our honor clean;
We are proud to claim the title
Of United States Marine.

Verse II

Our flag's unfurled to every breeze
From dawn to setting sun;
We have fought in every clime and place
Where we could take a gun.
In the snow of far-off Northern lands
And in sunny tropic scenes;
You will find us always on the job --
The United States Marines.

Verse III

Here's health to you and to our Corps
Which we are proud to serve;
In many a strife we've fought for life
And never lost our nerve.
If the Army and the Navy
Ever look on Heaven's scenes,
They will find the streets are guarded
By United States Marines.

Code of Conduct

Office Entry/Exit Procedures

1. Approach the door from the starboard with the right shoulder four inches from the bulkhead and halt so that the shoulder is even with the doorframe. Check appearance prior to stepping off.
2. Stepping off with the left foot, move to the center of the doorway, halt, and execute a right face and adjust to center of the doorway. With the palm of the right hand, knock three times at eye level on the doorframe in a loud, vigorous manner and await acknowledgement. If told to enter, proceed to the next section. If instructed to state business, then sound off, "Sir/Ma'am, Officer Candidate _____, Class XX-XX," and state business. If told to wait, conduct a right face, proceed to a position just starboard of the doorway and will wait.

Proceeding to the Desk.

1. If proceeding to the desk of an enlisted staff member and no officer is present, or to a staff officer's desk and no senior officer is present, enter the office when directed. Move in the most direct route to a position 12 to 18 inches in front of, and centered on, the desk of the person who authorized the entry.
2. If proceeding to the desk of an enlisted staff member and an officer is present, or to a staff officer's desk and a senior officer is present, take one step into the office and halt when directed to enter. Face the officer or senior officer. If covered, salute the officer and hold while giving the greeting of the day; if uncovered, simply give the greeting of the day. Await acknowledgment. Move direct route to a position 12 to 18 inches in front of, and centered on, the desk of the person who authorized the entry.

At the Desk.

1. Report: "Sir/Ma'am, Officer Candidate _____, Class XX-XX, reporting to _____ as ordered." or, when requesting to speak: "Sir/Ma'am, Officer Candidate _____, Class XX-XX, requests permission to speak to _____." If covered and interviewing with an officer, the report is rendered with a salute.
2. If told to "stand at ease," the candidate may do so but may not sit down unless specifically told to "sit down," "have a seat," etc. Initially when seated, the candidate will sit at attention unless told to be at ease.

Dismissal.

1. When dismissed or instructed to “carry on,” if at any position other than attention, the candidate will come to attention.
2. Take one step to the rear with the left foot. The left arm swings six inches forward and the right arm 3 inches to the rear of the right leg. Bring the right heel against the left, assuming the position of attention.
3. Answer “Aye Aye, sir/ma'am.” If covered and interviewing with an officer, the report is rendered with a salute.

Exiting.

1. If interviewing with an enlisted staff member and an officer is present or if interviewing with an officer and a senior officer is present, face the officer or senior officer. If covered, salute the officer and hold while giving the greeting of the day; if uncovered, simply give the greeting of the day. Await acknowledgment.
2. Execute an appropriate facing movement (left, right or about face) to face the door in the most direct manner.
3. Cross the threshold with the left foot first, pivoting smartly 90 degrees to the starboard, simultaneously turning the head starboard towards the office and rendering the appropriate greeting of the day.
4. If proceeding back with a group, proceed around the deck until returning to the tail end of the group awaiting interviews.

Awaiting Office Entry. If waiting to enter an office, position yourself on the starboard side of the doorway, at parade rest, back to the bulkhead with heels four inches from the bulkhead. Situational awareness of the deck is required to ensure appropriate honors are rendered. When a staff member steps onto the same deck as the candidate, the candidate will brace and give the greeting of the day. If several candidates are waiting and a senior steps onto the same deck, one candidate will give the others a standby and all will give the greeting of the day simultaneously. Once a candidate's name has been called, the candidate will perform the office entry procedure. If several candidates are waiting and one candidate enters the office, the next candidate in line will give the necessary facing movements to move the line down to wait next to the doorframe.

Chow Hall Procedures.

1. Class halts at bottom of steps
2. The Section Leader relieves drill body and proceeds up the second set of steps. When the section leader's left foot strikes the deck of the top step the section leader will turn their head to the right and give the greeting of the day. The section leader then performs a left face, centers them self on the class, and faces left again. At this time the section leader will ground their toes to the edge of the top step by executing a series of short choppy steps while looking down.

Section Leader: "Guide, post the guidon."

Guide: "Aye Aye, Section Leader." Guide will return to his/her position in the rear of the formation.

Section Leader: Give the command to ground canteens.

Section Leader: "Class XX-XX, upon receiving the command of execution 'March' you will half step up the ladder well and reform at the door."

Class: "Aye Aye, Section Leader."

Section Leader: "Half Step, March." Halt at end of sidewalk.

Section Leader: "Ready, Adjust," at which time all candidates will secure gloves-covers/watchcaps remain on until they enter the chow hall. Ensure everyone is presenting a neat cleanly appearance, and reform at the door exactly one forearms distance apart.

S. L.: “Class XX-XX, prepare to recover trays.”

Class: “Aye Aye, Section Leader,”

S. L.: “Ready, move,” the class will pick up trays, assume a posture of elbows tucked into sides, wrists and forearms straight and parallel to the deck.

S. L.: “Column of files from the right (or left).”

Squad leader: “Forward,”

Other squad leader: “Stand fast.”

S. L.: “March.” The class will then file out, depositing trays at the scullery. The first two candidates to the scullery will deposit all trays for the class. The third and fourth candidates will hold the doors open for the rest of the class. The first and last candidates out of the mess will render the greeting of the day.

Once outside, the class will retrieve canteens/knowledge bags and form up into a class formation at the position of attention and the Section Leader/Candidate Officer will march them to the next scheduled event.
